Why Kelley Mobile?

Our mission is to serve all the members of the Salem community who wish to use the Library.

We are aware that sometimes physical limitations due to age, illness, or injury can prevent individuals from using the library.

This service will to make using the library possible for anyone unable to get to the library.

If this seems to be a great option for you, a friend or family member, contact us today. You can call, visit the library or check the services menu on our webpage.

Who can get this service?

• This service is available to Salem residents of any age, including seniors, the physically disabled, and those who are homebound permanently or temporarily due to illness or injury.

How do I get started?

 Call or visit the library to arrange for an initial home visit so you can meet the volunteer, talk about your interests and set up a schedule.

What kind of library materials can I get?

• Any kind that the library offers

How often will materials be delivered?

• Your selections will be delivered once every two weeks.

What if I am not home?

 Your volunteer will call the day before to remind you of her next visit. If you are going to be away, you can call and let her know. If there is an emergency, your books will be renewed, and you can get in touch with us later.

NEW

We are aware that there are many older, physically challenged library users who come out to the Library during the winter - risking falls due to snow and ice.

To help these dedicated users, we now recommend that you sign up for seasonal delivery. This service is available from December 1 through April 30.

Who can get the service?

- Anyone who Is 60 or older
- Has physical limitations that make them unsteady on their feet
